BRISTOL CLINIC FOR SALE

I'm emigrating so this is priced for a quick sale as my Visa has now come through.

It's a small practice in a multidisciplinary clinic in the heart of Clifton and it's been busier than previously in the last year.

I currently work about 10 hours per week and have a great patient base that I'm keen to find a good Chiropractor for.

This would be ideal for someone looking to step up to develop their own practice with plenty of potential in the area. I'm more than happy to provide ongoing support and training for a small number of vestibular rehab cases that I have.

HEY, DOC, HANG ON A SECOND, DON'T SCROLL PAST...

We are always on the hunt for good Chiropractors to work with and, since you're here, we're assuming you might fit the bill? Whether you've heard of us before, or you haven't, whatever you think you know, or don't...why not have a conversation with us and work out if we're a match or not. We promise not to take offence if you turn us down, but we think you'll be impressed by our culture.

We're passionate about Chiropractic and this is a true family business where we mentor, guide, push and celebrate each other in equal measure. We've got 9 locations in the South East and we're actively growing. We see 2,500 visits per week, and last week we had 289 new patients...these numbers are real, and we're confident they are unrivalled in the industry...

You might be interested to ask about technique? Or shift patterns? Or percentages vs salary? Well, let's meet first and decide what's important...we've never failed to give a Chiropractor the opportunity to achieve their individual aspirations, which is why you'll find so many 'alumni' in the industry...we have often thought of ourselves as a 'Chiropractic Finishing School' and we're honestly very proud of our reputation as a result.

We have full time and part-time positions available, in several of our locations, at different times of the year. We can sponsor Tier 2 candidates. We even have the need for maternity cover if you're more interested in that 'locum' type position.

CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATE POSITION

An exciting position has become available for a full time employed Chiropractor to join our friendly team in Ringwood Hampshire and Verwood Dorset. The expected, realistic first year earnings will be in the region of £38,000-£45,000+ dependent on abilities. The potential to significantly grow over 2-3 years from any first-year base level to earn £60,000 plus per year is there for the right candidate.

The company are eager to recruit a hardworking, determined Chiropractor who has the right personal values, personality, a team ethos, and is the best person for the role. The right CPD qualifications and clinical experience will be a secondary consideration.

Role Requirements

- The ideal candidate would be highly proficient in hands on STW and SMT and bring with them all the scientific philosophies that underpin our profession.
- Will want to be part of a team within a company that is growing rapidly and has big plans and fantastic opportunities for its team.
- Appropriate GCC (General Chiropractic Council) registration, insurance, and full UK (United Kingdom) Driving License are basic requirements for this role.
- Be highly motivated to improve and grow as a person and practitioner.
- Have a professional manner with naturally warm interpersonal skills.

Role Responsibilities

- Assess and treat a varied caseload of patients.
- Maintain your own electronic patient records.
- Work within a team of other therapists to enhance the local reputation of the company.
- Deliver a high standard of hands-on clinical care.
- Mentoring and inhouse training will occur weekly for the successful applicant as part of team workshops and 1-1 sessions.

Company

We are a small well-established group of successful multi-disciplinary musculoskeletal health clinics; our team of practitioners are biomechanically focused though they all have various interests and specialisms relevant to their respective professions. They often utilise inter-referral between professions to produce the best possible patient outcomes. The company's treatment philosophy is focused on the restoration of functional biomechanics using manual therapies and motor re-patterning rehabilitation protocols. Ongoing external CPD (Continual Professional Development) will be paid for by the company and focused on this philosophy.

The clinical standards at the company are high. Their patient base includes professional footballers, golfers, and world champions and Olympians in several sports. Although, 90-95% of their work is general practice for all ages. Our client has clinic suites based in GP practices and in privately-owned high-street buildings.

Why should you apply?

- To feel valued as a practitioner and colleague
- To join a financially secure and dynamic company
- To become part of a great team
- To improve and broaden your knowledge and scope of practice
- To enjoy and gain satisfaction from improving people's lives through improving their movement.
