ULTRASOUND MACHINE FOR SALE

Samsung HM70A Ultrasound Machine

The machine is in excellent working condition and comes with a linear probe (LA3-16AD) and hard travel case. Manufactured October 2017.

Cosmetically it's in great shape with a couple small scratches on the silver bezel on the handle. It had a new lid installed by the manufacturer two years ago so that's still new. The screen and control panel is immaculate.

Battery holds about 30 minute charge (about normal) but it's only for emergency use anyway.

Version 3.01.02.0610 OS Version 3.00.00

Options installed:

4D

3D XI

CW Function

Multi vision

XI STIC

Volume NT

The last service was a couple years ago and is due it's next one now.

I'll be upgrading soon and would want to sell this on.

It would be a great starter machine. I have scanned many patients with this and it's a great machine. Has all the features needed for MSK and other types of scans.

Price £5000 (bought for £17,000).

Caveat - I can't let it go from my clinic until I have the new one so a small wait may be required.

MIS (where I bought it) can come out and service it at your clinic. It's not needed immediately as there is no problem with it at all.

Contact me if you require any further information. Neil Thomas 07581374206 n.e.thomas@live.co.uk

METRON CHIROPRACTIC BENCH

For Sale a Metron chiropractic bench

I had this bench from when I initially opened my own clinic and works well, has cervical, x2 thoracic and lumbar drops all in working order.

Lifts to a high level so if you want to use it for massage treatments as well then this is great.

Recently recovered with marine-grade anti-bacterial vinyl roughly one-year-old now. The last time I recovered the bench was six years ago so should have a good five-year use left.

Fully functioning, and the reason for the sale is that I have purchased an Atlas bench with flexion-distraction

Purchase price £900.00

I am happy to deliver at a cost of £1 per mile for up to 50 miles if that is helpful.

Any further questions please feel free to give me a call.
